Notice to Mariners 017.2019

Dated 21.03.2019

Expected Tidal Surge

Mariners are advised that due to current tidal surge forecasts, there is a tidal surge of between 40cm and 75cm expected to occur close to High Water on this Saturday 23rd PM tide, between 1900 and 2000 GMT.

This could elevate the tidal levels to 8.96M (Dock Sill).

Mariners are advised to take appropriate precautions to ensure safety of their vessels/moorings on berths.

This notice does not override any official Flood Warnings which may or may not be issued by the Environment Agency.

This Notice is self-cancelling.
